Teaching and managing student learning

Ensure:

- Curriculum coverage, continuity and progression in the subject for all students, including those of high ability and those with special educational or linguistic needs.
- Teachers are clear about the teaching of objectives in lessons, understand the sequence of teaching and learning in the subject, and communicate such information to students.
- Guidance is provided on the choice of appropriate teaching and learning methods to meet the needs of the subject and of different students.
- Effective development of students' literacy, numeracy and information technology skills through the subject.
- Teachers of the subject are aware of its contribution to students' understanding of the duties, opportunities, responsibilities and rights of citizens.
- Teachers of the subject know how to recognise and deal with racial stereotyping.
- Effective development of students' individual and collaborative study skills necessary for them to become increasingly independent when out of school.

Assessment and evaluation:

- Analyse and interpret relevant national, local and school data, research and inspection evidence to inform policies, practices, expectations, targets and teaching methods.
- Establish and implement clear policies and practices for assessing, recording and reporting on student achievement, and for using this information to recognise achievement and to assist students in setting targets for further improvement.
- Ensure that information about students' achievements in previous classes and schools is used effectively to secure good progress in the subject.
- Monitor the progress made in achieving subject plans and targets, evaluate the effects on teaching and learning, and use this analysis to guide further improvement.
- Evaluate the teaching of the subject in the school, use this analysis to identify effective practice and areas for improvement and take action to improve further the quality of teaching.

Student Outcomes:

- Establish clear targets for students' achievement, and evaluate progress and achievement by all students, including those with special educational linguistic needs and disadvantaged.
- Use data effectively to identify students who are underachieving and, where necessary, create and implement effective plans of action to support those students.

Relations with parents and wider community:

- Establish a partnership with parents to involve them in their child's learning of the subject, as well as providing information about curriculum, attainment, progress and targets.
- Develop effective links with the local community, including business and industry, in order to extend the subject, enhance teaching and develop the students' wider understanding.
- Communicate effectively, orally and in writing, with parents, governors, external agencies and the wider community, including business and industry.
